

LET THE
Nations
BE Glad

Oh, let the nations be glad and sing for joy!
For You shall judge the people righteously,
and govern the nations on earth.

LET THE Nations<sup>BE</sup> Glad

PSALM 67:4

Our theme, “Let the Nations Be Glad,” reminds us of the glory and joy of the gospel message and the privilege we have as ambassadors of Christ and heralds of His kingdom. We are glad you have joined us for this time of pondering the many new and exciting opportunities the Lord has opened up for us to get the glad tidings to all nations.

Until the Whole World Hears,
Brian Brodersen

BRIAN BRODERSEN is the associate pastor of Calvary Chapel Costa Mesa, California. Brian has been involved in missions work and church planting for more than 25 years.

TERRY ASCOTT has lived in the Middle East and served as the leader for indigenous media ministries for more than 30 years. In 1973 Terry moved to Beirut, Lebanon and worked to launch an Arabic Christian publishing ministry. After the start of the Lebanese Civil War, Terry and his family evacuated to Egypt. In Egypt, Terry launched an Arabic youth magazine called Magalla. This was the first Christian magazine to be successfully distributed on Egyptian newsstands. In 1995 he, along with Middle Eastern Christian leaders and around twenty partner organizations working in the region, launched SAT-7, the first Arabic Christian satellite television channel. He and his wife, Jacqueline, live in Nicosia, Cyprus.

DANIEL MASSIEH was born in Egypt into a Muslim family. In his early adult life he was curious about what happened in Christian churches, being sure they did something terribly wrong. While visiting a church with the intent to find fault, he was touched by the Lord and brought to faith in Jesus Christ. He was imprisoned for his faith and severely abused, but boldly shared the gospel with his captors and was eventually released. After some time of ministry in Egypt he immigrated to the U.S. where he has faithfully served the Lord as a pastor and Bible teacher.

TIM ANDERSON has been involved with the Calvary Chapel Movement since 1982. He was ordained at Calvary Chapel Santa Barbara in 1990. The Anderson family then served during the 90s as missionaries in Eastern Europe following the collapse of communism. In July 2001 they answered a call to pastor at Calvary Chapel Burbank. Tim and his wife, Laura, have been married 24 years and have five children.

PAUL BILLINGS and his wife, Melanie, moved from the Ukraine to the predominantly Muslim country of Kyrgyzstan where they planted the first Calvary Chapel in Central Asia. Paul pastored in Bishkek, Kyrgyzstan.

MELANIE BILLINGS has been involved in missions since her family moved to Ukraine in 1992 and planted Calvary Chapel Kiev. While ministering in Ukraine she met Paul, and soon after their marriage, moved to Kyrgyzstan. Melanie currently helps lead the music ministry in CC Bishkek, while also raising her five children.

BOB CALDWELL is the pastor of Calvary Chapel of Boise. From the early days hitchhiking up and down the California coast, sharing Christ, to current outreaches to India and Europe, missions has always been at the heart of Bob's Christian life. He has traveled to India more than 35 times since the Lord began the work of Chapel Missions India, and has traveled to Europe at least once a year since that work began more than 10 years ago. Calvary Chapel Boise has a firm commitment to missions, which is evidenced by more than 45% of the income going each month to local and international outreaches.

DAVID GUZIK is the pastor of Calvary Chapel of Santa Barbara. Prior to coming to Santa Barbara, David served as the director of Calvary Chapel Bible College in Germany. During that time David ministered extensively throughout Europe and around the world.

KEVIN FITZGERALD is the pastor of Cross Point in Dublin, Ireland. Starting with two people in 2002, the church has grown to over 100 adults and is in the process of spinning off two new fellowships in the Greater Dublin area. Kevin's heart is to see Bible believing fellowships planted all over Ireland. Kevin is married to Amanda and they have one daughter.

DAVE ROLPH is the pastor of Calvary Chapel Pacific Hills in Aliso Viejo, California, and is the Bible teacher for the radio program, The Balanced Word. He has been at CC Pacific Hills for seven years, and prior to that, he was an assistant pastor at Calvary Chapel of Costa Mesa for 25 years.
